FATHER FORGETS - Beyond the Ordinary

Father Forgets is based off of the poem, Father Forgets, by W. Livingston Larned. It is a display of the innocence of youth contrasted by the gravity of being an adult and parent. More than that, it's a beautiful tribute to the importance of relationships - the importance of words and actions; the value of a look, a touch, the tone of voice and the compassion needed to really communicate with one another.

Father Forgets by W Livingston Larned – Thought Table

Father Forgets – W. Livingston Larned. I took you to task for not cleaning your shoes. I called out angrily when you threw some of your things on the floor. At breakfast I found fault, too. You spilled things. You gulped down your food. You put your elbows on the table. You spread butter too thick on your bread.
